PROP FIRM PROGRAM TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Effective date: 23 July 2026

IMPORTANT NOTICE

UltraFX Academy is a training and mentorship provider. It is not a proprietary trading firm, broker, investment manager, financial adviser, guarantor, or provider of trading capital. No funded account, challenge pass, profit, income, or continued access to third-party capital is promised or guaranteed.

Please read these Terms and Conditions carefully. By registering, paying, accessing training, attending mentorship, or otherwise participating in the UltraFX Prop Firm Program, you confirm that you have read, understood, and accepted these Terms and Conditions.

1. Parties and scope

- “UltraFX”, “we”, “us” or “our” refers to UltraFX Academy operating within the FutureCampus ecosystem.
- “Participant”, “you” or “your” refers to the person purchasing, accessing, or participating in the Prop Firm Program.
- These Terms govern the educational and mentorship services supplied by UltraFX. They do not govern any separate relationship between you and a proprietary trading firm, broker, payment provider, trading platform, or other third party.

2. Nature of the program

- The Program provides education, mentorship, challenge preparation, strategy development or refinement, risk-management training, trading psychology, performance review, and general guidance on approaching proprietary trading firm evaluations.
- UltraFX may recommend or provide information about selected third-party prop firms. Any recommendation is for educational and directional purposes only and is not a warranty, endorsement of future performance, or guarantee that the firm will accept, fund, or continue funding you.
- Program content, schedules, mentors, delivery methods, and learning materials may be adjusted where reasonably necessary to improve delivery, respond to market or third-party rule changes, or maintain program quality.

3. UltraFX is not a prop firm

- UltraFX does not issue funded trading accounts, allocate trading capital, hold participant trading funds, execute trades on your behalf, or determine third-party challenge outcomes.
- Any funded account, evaluation, challenge, payout, profit split, scaling plan, suspension, termination, or withdrawal is controlled exclusively by the relevant third-party prop firm under its own rules.
- UltraFX has no authority to bind a third-party prop firm and is not responsible for that firm’s decisions, systems, pricing, rule changes, outages, closures, delays, payout decisions, or enforcement actions.

4. No guarantee of capital, profit, or success

- Participation does not guarantee that you will pass a prop-firm challenge, receive a funded account, retain a funded account, receive a payout, recover your fees, or earn any income.
- Any reference to a potential account size, including a USD 2,500 funded account, describes a possible third-party opportunity after successful completion of the applicable challenge and compliance with all third-party requirements. It is not capital supplied or guaranteed by UltraFX.
- Past performance, mentor performance, examples, simulations, testimonials, or educational demonstrations do not guarantee future results.

5. Participant eligibility and responsibilities

- You must provide accurate registration information and comply with applicable age, identity, residency, verification, payment, and platform requirements.
- You are responsible for reading and complying with the selected prop firm's current rules, including drawdown, daily loss, prohibited strategies, news trading, consistency, inactivity, device, IP, copy-trading, and payout rules.
- You remain solely responsible for every trading decision, account action, challenge purchase, broker or prop-firm selection, and financial consequence.
- You must not misrepresent your results, share restricted accounts or credentials, use unlawful methods, or engage in conduct that may expose UltraFX or other participants to legal, financial, or reputational harm.

6. Third-party fees and accounts

- Unless the product description or invoice expressly states otherwise, prop-firm challenge fees, reset fees, platform fees, broker costs, data fees, taxes, withdrawal charges, and other third-party costs are separate from the UltraFX training fee.
- You contract directly with the relevant third party. Before paying a third party, you should review its terms, refund policy, regulatory position, restrictions, and risk disclosures.
- UltraFX is not liable for money paid directly to a third party or for losses caused by third-party insolvency, misconduct, technical failure, rule changes, or refusal to provide services.

7. Fees, payment, and access

- Program fees must be paid through an authorised UltraFX or FutureCampus payment channel. Access may be withheld until payment is verified.
- Invoices, receipts, promo codes, referrals, and community routing may be managed through the FutureCampus checkout system.
- Access is personal and non-transferable. You may not sell, share, sublicense, copy, or distribute your access, lessons, recordings, group links, mentor communications, or learning materials.
- UltraFX may suspend access where payment is reversed, disputed, fraudulent, incomplete, or linked to unauthorised use.

8. Refunds and cancellations

- Because the Program includes digital content, onboarding, group access, mentor allocation, and reserved training capacity, fees are generally non-refundable once access has been granted, onboarding has begun, or a session has been attended.
- A refund request made before access or onboarding begins will be considered in accordance with applicable law, the checkout terms, and the circumstances of the request.

Skills for Financial Freedom

- No refund is due merely because a participant fails a challenge, breaches a third-party account, does not obtain funding, does not earn a payout, changes their mind after access begins, or fails to attend scheduled sessions.
- Nothing in this clause excludes any non-waivable consumer right available under applicable law.

9. Training delivery and mentor relationship

- Mentors provide education and guidance, not personalised financial, legal, tax, or investment advice.
- Mentors may review charts, journals, rules, psychology, or simulated and historical examples. The final decision to place, modify, or close a trade remains yours.
- UltraFX may replace a mentor, reschedule a session, change a delivery format, or provide an equivalent learning arrangement where reasonably required.
- Abusive, threatening, discriminatory, dishonest, disruptive, or unethical conduct may result in suspension or removal from the Program without refund, subject to applicable law.

10. Risk acknowledgement

- Trading and prop-firm evaluations involve substantial risk. You may lose challenge fees, reset fees, personal trading capital, expected payouts, and access to funded accounts.
- Leverage, market volatility, slippage, execution delays, platform outages, rule breaches, and emotional decision-making can produce rapid losses.
- You should not use money required for essential expenses and should seek independent professional advice where appropriate.

11. Intellectual property and confidentiality

- All UltraFX materials, strategies, templates, recordings, documents, graphics, systems, and training methods remain the intellectual property of UltraFX or its licensors.
- You receive a limited, personal, revocable right to use materials for your own learning during authorised access.
- You must not record sessions without permission, reproduce or sell materials, disclose private group content, distribute community links, impersonate UltraFX, or use UltraFX branding without written authorisation.

12. Data protection and communications

- UltraFX may collect and process registration, payment, referral, attendance, assessment, support, and performance-related information for enrolment, service delivery, analytics, fraud prevention, customer support, invoicing, community routing, and legal compliance.
- Information will be handled in accordance with applicable data-protection requirements and the relevant FutureCampus or UltraFX privacy notice.
- You consent to operational communication by email, telephone, WhatsApp, platform notifications, or other contact details you provide. You are responsible for keeping those details current.

13. Community and group access

- WhatsApp and other community groups are support and communication channels. They are not regulated advisory services, guaranteed signal services, or substitutes for the formal training program.
- Group links and content are private. Unauthorised sharing, solicitation, spam, impersonation, harassment, or promotion of unrelated products may lead to removal.
- UltraFX is not responsible for private arrangements, payments, advice, or disputes between participants or with persons impersonating UltraFX. Use only verified UltraFX channels.

14. Limitation of responsibility

- To the maximum extent permitted by law, UltraFX is not responsible for indirect, consequential, speculative, or trading losses, lost profits, lost payouts, failed challenges, account breaches, third-party charges, platform failures, or decisions made by prop firms or brokers.
- Where liability cannot legally be excluded, UltraFX's liability will be limited to the amount paid directly to UltraFX for the specific service giving rise to the claim, except where applicable law requires otherwise.
- Nothing in these Terms excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded, including liability arising from fraud or wilful misconduct.

15. Suspension and termination

- UltraFX may suspend or terminate access for non-payment, fraud, unauthorised sharing, serious misconduct, breach of these Terms, abuse of staff or participants, unlawful activity, or conduct that threatens the integrity of the Program.
- Termination does not remove obligations concerning payment, confidentiality, intellectual property, liability, or third-party commitments already incurred.
- A participant may stop participating at any time, but refund eligibility remains governed by clause 8.

16. Changes to the Program or these Terms

- UltraFX may update these Terms or Program procedures to reflect legal, operational, technological, or third-party changes.
- Material changes will be communicated through reasonable official channels and will apply from the stated effective date. Changes will not retrospectively remove rights already accrued under applicable law.

17. Governing law and disputes

- These Terms are governed by the laws of the Republic of Zambia.
- Any concern should first be submitted to UltraFX in writing so that the parties can attempt good-faith resolution.
- If a dispute cannot be resolved informally, either party may pursue available remedies before the competent courts or authorities of Zambia.
